

THE ALBUM: SKOOL EDITION

Easy Read

What to expect:

the album: skool edition is a dance show with two dancers.

The dancers wear different coloured clothes. They could be blue, purple or pink.

OR

the album: skool edition is for children and families.

the album: skool edition is performed outside. It might be busy and noisy.

Music will be played through speakers so you can hear it.

the album: skool edition lasts 15 minutes.

You are allowed to make as much noise as you like. The dancers really enjoy it when you clap and get excited.

What is the performance about?

The dancers are friends. They love listening to music and dancing together.

Their favourite game at school was to make up new dances in the playground.

In this performance, they act like they are in school again.

What happens in this performance?

The dancers talk to the crowd and ask them to dance too.

You can copy their dance if you want, but you don't have to.

The dancers dance together and have lots of fun.

They play a game where they dance and freeze.

You can join in if you want.

One of the dancers plays a Ukulele.

The other dancer dances with a handkerchief.

The dancer with the Ukulele wants to try dancing with the handkerchief too.

They dance together with handkerchiefs.